

side the St. Lawrence would be greatly different from the cultivators of the delta of the Mississippi. The same is true of South America, of Europe, of Africa and Asia, considered each by itself alone. The problem to be solved is the formation of a government elastic enough to suit all sections and strong enough to hold all together for the needed co-operation.

SOCIALITIES.

Miss Minnie Davis, Earlington, is visiting friends in the city.

Misses Lucy Bibb and Clo Williams, Russellville, come down yesterday.

Misses Sallie Tandy and Mollie Dulin are visiting Miss Richie Boales.

Mrs. S. A. Young and Mrs. T. W. Buckner, of Henderson, are in the city.

Mrs. Wigal and Miss Sallie Chesney, Henderson, are visiting Mrs. J. C. Day.

Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Prestridge left Wednesday morning for a bridal trip South.

Misses Belle Henry, Mattie Small, Nannie Barnes and Emma Camp, of Allenalee, are in the city.

There are so many young ladies visiting in the city that it is a hopeless task to undertake to give all their names.

M. Frankel arrived from Cincinnati Tuesday night and will spend some time in the city.

Miss Carrie Dabney returned to her home in Cadiz to-day, after a visit of several days to friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Wallace and Miss Belle Wisdom, of Paducah, Ky., are the guests of Miss Sallie Wallace.

Col. McPherson and Rev. W. L. Nourse are attending the Presbyterian General Assembly at St. Louis.

Among the distinguished visitors in the city are Gov. J. Proctor Knott, Attorney General P. W. Hardin, Auditor Fayette Hewitt, Secretary of State J. A. McKenzie, of Frankfort; Senator M. C. Alford, Lexington; Dr. E. D. Standiford, Col. Murray Keller, Senator L. G. Hays, Louisville; Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge, Rev. Dr. C. F. Deems; Rev. Dr. A. D. Sears, Clarksville; Rev. Dr. C. H. Strickland, Nashville; Congressman Stone and Lafoon and Gen. S. B. Buckner, Democratic nominee for Governor, of Kentucky.

Death of Mrs. M. E. Long.

Mrs. Martha E. Long died suddenly at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. Jas. A. Young, in the 71st year of her age. She had been ill during the night and was awake at 5 o'clock. Shortly after that hour she appeared to go to sleep and was resting easier as the family thought, but when they went to her bedside at 6 it was found that she had expired in her sleep. Deceased was the widow of the late Gabriel Long, for many years an honored citizen of Hopkinsville, but who died several years ago. She leaves three sons—Messrs. Geo. C., Edward B. and Thos. W. Long—and two daughters—Mrs. V. W. Crabbs and Mrs. J. A. Young—besides many other relatives and friends to mourn her death. She was one of the best of women, a pious, Christian lady whose life was an example of goodness worthy the emulation of all. Her remains were interred in the City Cemetery yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, the funeral being preached from the residence of Dr. Young, by her pastor, Rev. L. W. Welsh, of the Christian church.

DECORATIONS.

C. M. Latham's decorations were among the handsomest and costliest. The Court House and City Court room, the McDaniel Block, and the New Era Office were prettily decorated.

Mr. Lipstine had a life size picture of a Confederate and Federal soldier shaking hands, with the motto "Peace", above.

Nearly every business house in the city, on the main thoroughfares, was handsomely and appropriately decorated.

Howe & Galbreath and G. E. Gaither had one of the prettiest fronts and their taste was complimented on every hand.

D. J. Hooser had four arches, two across the pavement and two over his doors, with a profusion of flags interwoven.

H. B. Garner had a picture of the monument on a canvass above his door in a wreath of flags, flowers and evergreens.

The headquarters of the various committees and lodges, at various points on Main street, were all handsomely ornamented.

Frankel & Sons decorated more profusely than anybody else. Their three story building was almost covered with flags and streamers.

Many houses on streets not on the line of march were decorated and the whole city seemed gay with the brilliant colors of the American flag.

Mrs. & Timothy, Pye & Walton and M. D. Kelly, in addition to the national colors had out the green flags of Ireland and the first named firm displayed the German colors also.

Olvey & Reichert had an arch of cedar and flags over their door and a picture of Gen. Lee in a wreath of flowers and evergreens hung in their show window, in addition to flags on the building.

On Main street the business houses beginning with the Main St. Warehouse and Forbes & Bro's, building were all decorated up to 5th street. Some of the decorations deserve more than a passing notice.

All of the business houses occupied on Main were decorated and it was hard to tell which of the many designs attracted the most attention. The largest flag was that of Henderson & Son, 12x24 feet, stretched across the street.

EXPLANATION.

In order to supply visitors with a report of the unveiling, before they leave the city, we have issued our regular paper of May 20th, twelve hours ahead of time, and have thereby performed the wonderful journalistic feat of putting a ten column report of the affair on the streets within 40 minutes after the exercises were concluded.

HERE AND THERE.

The Court of Appeals has decided that Winfree was elected.

"She" is crowded out of this issue by the mass of unveiling matter.

For the tastiest and handsomest line of straw goods in the city, go to M. Lipstine.

Last Monday the South bound local freight killed five cows near Kelly's station.

M. Lipstine's stock of Millinery and Straw goods is unexcelled in variety, quality and low prices.

Frank Ragdale will receive a wool for W. E. Embury at the office of Eugene Mills Co., at the depot.

Wool wanted at top prices, see W. E. Embury (in city Wednesday and Saturday). Sacks furnished.

An unknown crank harangued a crowd on the public square for an hour or more Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah Tandy, a very old lady who lives near Fairview, is very sick and not expected to recover.

Mr. S. C. Mercer's barn was struck by lightning Tuesday night and considerably torn up, though it was not ignited.

By order of the Master, the next regular meeting of Casky Grange will be held on Thursday, May 26th. Bro. Bingham, of Ohio, will address the Grange and the public at 2 P. M. the same day.

WALTER WARFIELD, Secy.

Rev. E. L. Powell, formerly pastor of the Christian church of this city, but now pastor of a church at Mayville, Ky., was married one day last week to Miss Lida Smoot, of Mayville.

Mr. William W. Wilson, aged about ninety years, died at his home in the North part of the county one day last week. He was probably the oldest citizen in that section and was an honest, upright man and liked by all who knew him.

The Turnpike Co., opened bids for building the pikes Monday night. A great many bids were put in and the writings were so voluminous that it will require some time to look over them. It is expected that the contracts will be let in a few days and work at once begun.

Mr. A. L. Carter, of the Longview vicinity, had two fine beasts killed by lightning Tuesday night. One was a fine gray mare worth $175 and the other a young male valued at $100 or more. Both were found lying together in the pasture, having evidently been killed by the same bolt.

N. B. Syer had out a profusion of flags and bunting, and from the corner to the lamp post at the curbing a double archway of evergreens was stretched into which was woven the name "Latham." The whole was beautified with flags and it was altogether one of the prettiest designs in the city.

R. P. Stevens' grocery was broken into for the third time this year on last Monday night. The burglar entered through a rear window and helped himself to what he wanted, as there was no one in the store. About $100 worth of goods, including cigars and tobacco and other things, and all the cash in the drawer were taken. No clue to the guilty party has been discovered.

Rev. Dr. Deems will preach at the grand stand in the cemetery next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at the Opera House at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. These discourses will doubtless be listened to by very large congregations, as all who heard the learned divine's discourse yesterday are anxious to hear him preach. At the evening service the audience will be limited to the seating capacity of the room which is about 700, and the owner of the Opera House will not permit the aisles to be blocked with chairs under any circumstances. In view of this fact it would be well for those to go early who desire to get in.

The Council held a called meeting Tuesday to consider propositions for building a street railroad. Two propositions were submitted, one by a New York syndicate and the other by local capitalists and parties in Nashville, under the corporate name of the Hopkinsville Street Railway Co. Both propositions were fair and liberal, and provided for the running of cars in one year's time. The Board wasted time in examining them carefully and adjourned until May 31st, at which time the matter will be acted upon.

Some of the handsomest decorations were on 9th street. The South Kentuckian building, the Kentuckian editorial rooms above and Blumenstiel's carriage display room below, was decorated in an attractive and unique manner. A floral awning extended over the lower door and the entire front was wrapped with the national colors and richly ornamented with flags of all sizes. In the windows above were displayed old muskets used at Shiloh and Ft. Donelson, while three guns were stacked in the central window around the inscription "War is Over." The adjoining houses occupied by the R. B. Ewing, H. C. Ballard and W. L. Waller were also tastefully decorated. Across the street the barber-shop of Young & Banks was made very attractive with flags, bunting etc.

More Unveiling Notes.

Faller Details and Local Incidents.

There was not a poor speech made. The business houses nearly all closed up.

The exercises were not concluded until 5 o'clock.

The lemonade vendors got in their work on the public square.

Gen. Buckner was given an ovation when he ascended the stand.

Many of the visitors staid over to attend the Hop at night.

A salute was fired over the grave of Capt. E. R. Cook, during the exercises.

A portrait of Mr. Latham was hung in the speaker's stand in view of the audience.

The City Bank was not decorated on account of the death of the mother of the cashiers.

Hon. E. P. Campbell, a member of the City Council, read Mayor Thompson's response.

There were very few colored people at the cemetery. Two lodges marched in the parade.

The G. A. R. headquarters was at the corner of 5th and Main and about 75 soldiers were fed.

A delightful breeze kept the crowd from suffering with heat, although the afternoon was quite warm.

The grave of Capt. E. R. Cook was handsomely decorated by the Latham Light Guards and guarded by a detail of sentinels.

The train from the north, 14 coaches, broke down and was left at Crofton until another engine was sent. It got in at 1 o'clock.

A delightful shower fell Wednesday night and yesterday was a perfect day. It could not have been better if it had been made to order by the Weather Bureau.

Gen. S. B. Buckner, who was one of the distinguished visitors, captured Hopkinsville 26 years ago and occupied it with Confederate soldiers. He is the guest of Maj. Jno. P. Campbell while in the city.

There was more than enough to feed twice as many persons as the Reception Committee entertained. Those who were overlooked found ample accommodations at the hotels and lunch stands. It was a tremendous crowd, but Hopkinsville proved equal to the task of feeding it.

Little Minor Latham, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. C. M. Latham, and a niece of Mr. Jno. C. Latham, pulled the cord that unveiled the monument, supported by five maids of honor, of about her own age, viz: Bessie Campbell, Jessie Howe, Lizzie Gaither, Grace Wood and Lola Dennis.

The several divisions of the parade were largely represented and the procession was more than a mile in length. Although probably 5,000 people went to the cemetery ahead of the procession, the streets were crowded with spectators who watched the long line go by. When the people had all gathered at the monument it was impossible for half of them to obtain seats.

Dr. A. D. Sears, the venerable Baptist minister who pronounced the benediction, is now more than 80 years of age. He was living in this city 25 years ago and visited many of the sick soldiers who died in the hospital here and prayed at their bedside and by their open graves. It was very appropriate that this good man should assist in the ceremonies of yesterday.

An informal reception complimentary to Rev. Dr. Chas. F. Deems, Rev. Dr. A. D. Sears, Rev. C. H. Strickland, Hon. W. C. P. Breckenridge and other distinguished guests in the city was held at the residence of Mrs. Virginia Latham from 8 to 10 last evening. After the public reception was over, the various committees, distinguished visitors and participants in the exercises of the day were given a banquet by Mrs. Latham, assisted by Mrs. Jno. C. Latham, of New York.

The crowd in the city was fully 15,000 and was estimated by some at from 20,000 to 25,000. Evansville sent 100, Henderson 100, Owensboro 125, Clarksville 150, Madisonville 100, Earlington 100, Elton, Cadiz, Paducah and other towns even larger delegations, while the whole population of the surrounding country seemed to be gathered in the city. Many cities farther away sent big delegations, the special train from the north bringing in fully 1500 at noon.

The following representatives of the press of other cities were present: L. W. Gaines, Elton Progress, P. W. Mather, Nashville Union; S. A. Cunningham, Nashville American; W. W. Ross, Evansville Journal; A. J. Miller, Evansville Tribune; M. J. Verdery, N. Y. Times and Atlanta Constitution; W. O. Brandon, Clarksville Tobacco Leaf; Clint B. Leigh, Paducah Standard; Zeno F. Young, Madisonville Times; C. C. Givens, Henderson Gleaner; Robt. Crenshaw, Cadiz Telephone; Parvin DeGaris, Globe Democrat.

Clifton Age, aged about 22 years, son of Rev. R. C. Cave, pastor of the Seventh Street Christian church, Richmond, while on his way to Macedonia church on Sunday May 8th, attempted to ford the Pamunkey river, which was very high from recent rains, and was drowned. The horse, with the saddle on, escaped and was found that evening. The body of the unfortunate young man was recovered on Monday a few hundred yards below the ford, in a mutilated condition.—Orange, Va., Observer.

There will be a picnic at Little River Church, to-morrow.

Our Millionaires.

do not find all their investments gold, by any means. But an investment in Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is certain to prove a good one. It cures cough, consumption, bronchitis, sick-headache, skin diseases, dyspepsia, constipation, scrofulous diseases, chills and fever, and dumb ague. It reaches the blood, and through it the whole system. Agreeable to take, permanent in its results. By druggists.

The Effects of Mental Exhaustion. Many diseases, especially those of the nervous system, are the products of daily repressed emotions. Business transactions often involve an amount of mental wear and tear very prejudicial to physical health, and the professions, if frantically pursued, are no less destructive to brain and nerve tissue. It is one of the most important attributes of Hatter's Stomach Bitters, that it counteracts for this undue loss of life, and that it repairs nerve and physical vitality in a remarkable, and shows that its invigorating properties are of the highest order. It cures indigestion, nervousness, and counteracting the effects of mental exhaustion, this potent medicine cures and prevents fever and ague, rheumatism, chronic dyspepsia and constipation, kidney and nerve weakness and other complaints. Physicians also commend it as a medicated stimulant and remedy.
